

House Resolution No. 921

Whereas, Neil Evans began his Scouting career as a Tiger Cub in the St. Louis Area Council in 1991; and

Whereas, Neil Evans advanced to the rank of Webelo, during which time he participated in Pack 296 and survived the Great Flood at Beaumont Scout Camp; and

Whereas, Neil Evans became an active member of Troop 801 in St. Louis and fearlessly negotiated the high ropes course at Camp S Bar F, after surviving the stormy backpack trip to the site; and

Whereas, as a member of Troop 801, Neil Evans secured the honor of being named to the ranks of the Order of the Arrow in 1997 and now holds the rank of Brotherhood; and

Whereas, Neil Evans joined the respected ranks of Troop 1 in Jefferson City, Missouri, in 1998, and while a member of Troop 1, used his lifesaving skills during a canoe trip to aid in the rescue of Troop members whose canoe had capsized; and

Whereas, Neil Evans has held positions of leadership in Troop 1 including Assistant Senior Patrol Leader, and has even had a song written about his exploits at Summer Camp; and

Whereas, Neil Evans met the challenge of the 12-day, 75-mile backpack trip at the legendary Philmont Scout Ranch in Cimarron, New Mexico, in August, 1999; and

Whereas, Neil Evans successfully passed his Eagle Board of Review in Jefferson City, Missouri, on January 15, 2002:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, recognize Neil Evans as the recipient of the rank of Eagle Scout, a prestigious honor and distinct responsibility, for which he shall be known henceforth; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Neil Evans.
